Overview

The Public Relations Office & Library was established to support the training courses offered at Gaming Teaching and Research Center.

Our main objectives are:

1. Improve cultural, technical, and professional level of individuals;
2. Provide a wide range of information and materials for teaching, research and learning purpose;
3. Carry out academic and technical exchange with other libraries.

Opening Hours: Monday – Friday, 09:00 - 22:00

Libraries Resources

Book collections

Collection mainly comprises books related to gaming, tourism and training. In addition, we also have reference materials and multi-media resources.

Journals

Different types of journals, newspapers, magazines, periodicals, statistical information, etc are provided. All journals are arranged according to categories on the shelves. Current journals are displayed separately and the back issues are put in the showcases. Back issues of over half a year are put on the book shelves according to different categories. Journals that we no longer subscribe are stored at our stack room. Past journals can easily be obtained with the request to our librarians. Current newspapers are displayed in the journal area. All journals, newspaper and magazines can be read in the library only and are not allowed to check out.

Reference materials

Reference sources include dictionaries, handbooks, encyclopedias, geographic dictionaries, yearbooks, bibliographies, atlases, directories, official publications, reports and law books, etc. All reference materials are for consultation in the library only.
Specialized reference materials

Collection covers specialized textbooks and some teaching materials recommended by the staff. All specialized reference materials are for consultation in the library only.

Multi-media materials

Multi-media materials include video tapes, CD, DVD, audio cassette tapes, floppy disks, etc. All of these materials are not allowed to check out of the library.

Books borrowing service is limited to Gaming Teaching & Research Centre only.
